

Express Mail

Any matter eligible for mailing may, at the option of the mailer, be mailed by Express Mail service. Express Mail service is available from designated retail postal facilities to other designated facilities for delivery to the recipient, or, optionally, pickup by the recipient. Drop-off, pick-up, and delivery times are specified by the Postal Service for particular locations and days of the week. Delivery is either overnight, on the second day, or on the second delivery day (the next delivery day following the second day), as specified by the Postal Service for particular locations and days of the week.

Express Mail pieces are sealed against postal inspection and shall not be opened except as authorized by law. Insurance, up to an amount specified in the Domestic Mail Manual, is included in Express Mail postage. Additional insurance (Express Mail Insurance) is available for an additional charge, depending on the value and nature of the item sent by Express Mail service. Express Mail service provides a high speed, high reliability service. Claims for refunds of postage must be filed within the period of time and under terms and conditions specified in the Domestic Mail Manual.

2210 Outbound Priority Mail International Packages

Outbound Priority Mail International is made up of the Priority Mail International Flat Rate Envelope, the Priority Mail International Flat Rate Boxes, and Priority Mail International Parcels. With the exception of the Flat Rate Envelope, Priority Mail International is an outbound international mail service designed for the carriage of postal parcels. Written correspondence having the nature of current and personal correspondence is not permitted in Priority Mail International parcels, but may be sent in the Priority Mail International Flat Rate Envelope. Only the Priority Mail International Flat Rate Envelope is sealed against postal inspection and shall not be opened except as authorized by law.

International Ancillary Services

International Registered Mail – International Registered Mail service provides additional protection and security in dispatch and conveyance in the United States for the Priority Mail Flat Rate envelope. International Registered Mail service is handled in accordance with the internal procedures of destination postal administrations. Indemnity in the event of loss or damage of International Registered Mail is limited to the amount set by the Universal Postal Union Convention and is significantly lower than the amounts available for domestic Registered Mail. International Registered Mail service is subject to both U.S. Postal Service requirements and the prohibitions and restrictions of the destination country. Customized pricing is available through mailer-specific agreement.

Fee:

International Registered Mail 10.80

International Return Receipt – International Return Receipt service provides evidence to the mailer that an article has been received at the delivery address. It must be purchased at the time of mailing. It is signed at the point of delivery and is returned to the sender. International Return Receipt service is subject to availability in the destination country for registered Priority Mail flat rate envelopes, insured parcels, and Express Mail International as specified in the International Mail Manual. Customized pricing is available through mailer-specific agreement.

Fee:

International Return Receipt 2.20

International Restricted Delivery – International Restricted Delivery service limits who may receive an item as determined by the internal requirements of the destination country. International Restricted Delivery service is available for registered Priority Mail International flat rate envelopes, and if accompanied by a return receipt, subject to availability in the destination country. Customized pricing is available through mailer-specific agreement.

Fee:

International Restricted Delivery 4.30
