POSTAL SERVICE TO HOLD COMMUNITY MEETING ON PROGRESS OF TRENTON PLANT DECONTAMINATION

HAMILTON TOWNSHIP, NJ – Area residents and businesses will soon be receiving postcards inviting them to attend the next community meeting for Hamilton residents set for Monday October 20th. The meeting will be held at Reynolds Middle School, 2145 Yardville-Hamilton Square Road, Hamilton. It will start promptly at 7:00 p.m.; doors open at 6:30 p.m.

Officials will brief the community on progress to decontaminate the Trenton Processing & Distribution Center, located on Route 130.

The Honorable Mayor Glen D. Gilmore and Thomas G. Day, Vice President, Engineering, United States Postal Service, will address the community, along with representatives from the New Jersey State Department of Health and Senior Services, New Jersey State Department of Environmental Protection, New Jersey State Police, and the United States Environmental Protection Agency.

There will be a short presentation by the Postal Service outlining the decontamination process, followed by a question and answer period.

Residents and businesses seeking additional information can call a 24-hour, toll-free Community Information Line at 1-800-527-0741.
