With this stamp, the U.S. Postal Service commemorates the centennial of the Indianapolis 500 Mile Race, one of the most significant auto races in the world.

B Each of these four stamps depicts a different kind of bike and rider: a young child just learning to ride, a commuter pedaling to work, a road racer intent on the finish line, and an airborne BMX racer. usap.co/bicycling

B Bicycling Press Sheet
The 21¾” x 11¾” sheet contains six uncut panes of 20 Bicycling stamps. Each pane includes selvage markings denoting the printer, and the ink colors used to print the stamps.
Jointly issued by the U.S. Postal Service and La Poste of France, these stamps celebrate a lively two-way conversation between continents. Edith Piaf is one of the few French popular singers to become a household name in the United States; the great American jazz trumpeter Miles Davis, admired internationally, is especially beloved in France, where he performed frequently.

In 2012, the U.S. Postal Service commemorates the centennial of the gift of more than 3,000 cherry blossom trees from the city of Tokyo to the city of Washington, D.C. usap.co/cherry

The word “bonsai” (Japanese for “plant in a pot”) refers to the art of cultivating plants — usually trees — in trays, pots, or other containers. A common style of bonsai is shown on each of these five stamps. usap.co/bonsai

Honoring Lady Bird Johnson and her efforts to beautify America, this stamp pane includes six stamps: a new stamp which reproduces the official 1968 White House portrait of the First Lady, and adaptations of five stamps issued in the 1960s that encouraged people to participate in President and Mrs. Johnson’s “Plant for a More Beautiful America” campaign.

The U.S. Postal Service continues to honor the sacrifices of the men and women who serve in the U.S. military with this re-design of the 2011 stamp.

Since the founding of the republic, the United States has looked to the maritime industry for much of its growth and security. These four designs feature types of vessels that have formed an important part of this history: clipper ships, auxiliary steamships, Liberty ships, and container ships.

This stamp commemorating the bicentennial of the War of 1812, features Michele Felice Corné’s historic painting of the famous warship. This quartet of stamps features a U.S. flag flying over one of four words: Freedom, Liberty, Equality, and Justice. The black typeface recalls the look of Colonial-era printing.
Disney-Pixar’s unique characters make us laugh while reminding us of our fears and foibles, challenges and victories. These five stamps feature beloved characters from A Bug’s Life, The Incredibles, Finding Nemo, Toy Story 2, and Monsters, Inc.
